

IIPS
Golden Jubilee Year

APPOINTMENTS

Mr. Abhishek Singh has joined as Lecturer in the Department of Public Health and Mortality Studies w. e. f. 3rd April 2006. Prior to joining the current post, he served in the Department of Extra Mural Studies & Distance Education at IIPS as Lecturer (ad hoc). He is the recipient of the prestigious Dr. C. Chandrasekaran Junior Demographer Award instituted by the Indian Association for the Study of Population (IASP); and a recipient of Parkes Foundation Small Grant (Department of Biological Anthropology, Cambridge University) for carrying out his PhD work. He is a member of International Union for the Scientific Study of Population (IUSSP), Indian Association for the Study of Population (IASP), and Indian Society for Medical Statistics (ISMS). His areas of research are: Mathematical Demography, Mortality Analysis and Reproductive Health.

Dr. T.V. Sekher has joined as Reader in the Department of Population Policies and Programmes w. e. f. 29th May 2006. Trained in Sociology and Demography, his areas of research interests are social demography, health studies, gender issues and international migration. Prior to joining IIPS, he was a faculty at the Institute for Social and Economic Change, Bangalore. He has directed and coordinated many research and action projects in the areas of health care, demographic changes, and health services delivery. Dr. Sekher was a visiting fellow at the Wellcome Trust Centre for History of Medicine, London and Maison de Sciences la Homme, Paris. He has authored two books and has many research articles in national and international publications.

Cont...

IIPS

Golden Jubilee Year

Dr. K. C. Das has joined as Reader in the Department of Migration and Urban Studies w. e. f. 3rd April 2006. Prior to this position, he was working as Lecturer in the Department of Migration and Urban Studies, IIPS during 2003-2006. He has also worked as Assistant Professor at the Indian Institute of Health Management Research, Jaipur; as Lecturer in C.H.M. College, Thane and as Research Officer at IIPS. He obtained his M.Sc. degree in Applied Geography from Utkal University, Bhubaneswar; and MPS, M.Phil. and Ph.D. degrees in Population Studies from IIPS. His primary areas of research interest are migration and urbanization in developing countries, and developmental aspects and health consequences of migration and urbanization.

Dr R. B. Bhagat has joined as Professor in the Department of Migration and Urban Studies, w.e.f. April 3, 2006. He was earlier Reader in the Department of Fertility Studies of this Institute. He holds Master Degree in Geography from the Centre for the Study of Regional Development, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi, and PhD in Demography from University of Bombay. He has been associated with Tata Institute of Social Sciences during 2002-2003 under UGC Research Award. He worked as Lecturer and Reader in the Department of Geography in Maharshi Dayanand University for over a decade. His research areas include – migration and urbanisation, population and environment, fertility and population policies and programmes. He is an active member of the International Union for the Scientific Study of Population (IUSSP), Paris.

Dr. L. Ladusingh has joined as Professor in the Department of Mathematical Demography and Statistics w. e. f. 3rd April 2006. He was earlier Reader in the same department. Prior to joining the Institute he was working as Associate Professor in Manipur University, Imphal. He also worked as Assistant Director, Directorate of Economics & Statistics, Manipur. He holds Ph D in Demography from IIPS. His research publications are in the areas of stochastic modeling, survey research, aging and reproductive health. He is member elect of the editorial team of reputed journal, Population Space and Place published by John Wiley, UK.